An Exclusive Experience for Our Valued Donors
Intimate Access | World-Class Artists

What is the Arbor Series?

The Arbor Series offers Austin Symphony donors at the "1911 Society" level and above* exclusive behind-the-scenes access to our Masterworks performances through elegant pre-concert luncheons.

- Intimate Luncheons – Three-course meals every Thursday at noon before Masterworks concerts
- Artist Access – Personal Q&A sessions with Maestro Peter Bay and guest performers
- Head Table Option – Reserve premium seating alongside featured artists and the Maestro
- Insider Insights – Stories and perspectives that enrich your concert experience
- Exclusive Community – Connect with fellow passionate music lovers

Membership Details:

- Who's Eligible: "1911 Society" donors and above*
- Annual Membership: $250/pp + individual luncheon fees $65/pp with option to purchase wine (discount of $60/pp when purchasing the entire season of lunch in advance)
- When: Thursdays at noon prior to each Masterworks performance
- Where: Varies (see calendar)

Monthly email invitations will be sent in the weeks prior to each luncheon. Advance reservations and payment are required. Guest artists and venue location are subject to change and will be communicated as soon as possible. Parking information will be provided prior to the event.

Donors who contribute a minimum of $500 to the ASO Annual Fund*
